Sir GREGORY GIGG;

OR, THE

CITY BEAU.

A Favourite SONG, in The Son in Law.

Sung by Mr. MILLS, in the Character of Bouquet, at the Saliſbury Theatre.

Tune—Young Jockey ſtole my Heart away.

THIS face obſerve, diſcerning fair;
Obſerve each motion debonair;
My Artois buckles when you view,
In ſhining ſable ſattin ſhoe,
You'll ſay that I'm from top to toe,
A monſtrous handſome City Beau.

My humble whiſky I deſpiſe;
Like Phæton, I mount the ſkies;
And, as I drive away like mad,
They all declare that I'm the LAD;
And cry, he's ſure, from top to toe,
A monſtrous handſome City Beau.

FOWLER, PRINTER, SALISBURY.

BRITISH MUSEUM 7 JUL 71